To New Students

We have, at Wake Forest, a tradition and an academic community of which we, as students, are very proud. You are now a part of this tradition and a resident of the community and we hope that you will accept this dignity and responsibility with the love and respect that other Wake Forest Students feel.

The traditions of the new campus are forming every day, and much of the rich heritage of the old campus is constantly with us. Our physical plant is among the most beautiful in the country, with its broad plaza and shady trees, magnolias and great expanses of green grass. The dormitories are modern and well equipped, and the campus lounges and study facilities are increasing in a rapid and well ordered plan. Two new buildings have been built this year, and the ground will be broken for more in the years that you are a student here.

The campus has an infectious air of friendship in which everyone joins. On the campus and off, the student body and faculty and administration are as one, greeting and knowing each other in a rather unusual atmosphere for a college of its size. Events are planned for the year which will give you an opportunity to know all of the faculty well, and on a basis other than that provided by the classroom.

Our goals and honor are deep-seated within every member of the college family, and our Honor System, developed and governed by the students themselves, is the healthy outgrowth of that integrity and feeling.

Many of the things about the College you will see and learn when you arrive for your Orientation Program. It is our hope that you will read this booklet and learn something about the campus and the kind of life you will be introduced to at Wake Forest. We hope you will enjoy becoming one of us, and we welcome you to the student body.

College Life, Traditions

Traditions—the intangibles of college life—contribute a major portion of what students, faculty and alumni call the Spirit of Wake Forest. That spirit cannot be clearly defined; it cannot be put down in black and white. But it is as real as the College itself.

There is no one principal custom, no central theme. But Wake Forest traditions all are deep rooted and cherished aspects of life at a school with a distinct personality. These can, however, be described to some extent. . .

It is fall, and new students go through an orientation program to introduce them to the College. Identification badges are issued, and one knows the name and hometown of a new student on sight.

Soon the long lines of registration begin to form. And after two days of headaches a convocation address is held in the chapel and the Fall term is under way.

Always, from the first day of school to the last, an atmosphere of friendliness prevails on the campus. Everyone speaks to those they meet, whether they know each other or not. The custom of speaking, not found at many colleges, strengthens the Wake Forest community.

College life soon begins at its whirlwind pace. Activities start immediately, some even before school begins, and the endless grind of lectures, reports, quizzes and term papers has begun.

Football games take over the sports picture in the fall. Pep rallies draw throngs of students and spirits are high on nights before home games. Students will cross town to Bowman Gray Stadium and long, stirring chants of "Go, Wake Forest," "Fight Deacons" or perhaps "Poor Carolina" may fill the arena. And after the game, here or away, football, basketball or baseball, if the Deacons have won, the tolling of the victory bell sounds triumph for the Alma Mater.

Then there's Homecoming. Fraternities put up decorations outside the dorms, and the work is done during the night so that no group sees another's theme until the big day. The campus is filled with old grads, sponsors are introduced at halftime at the game, parties and the annual Homecoming dance are held.

Almost every Tuesday during the school year the campus resembles a military post as ROTC students don Army uniforms for drill day. Accompanied by the ROTC band, the cadet corps marches to the athletic field for two hours of military cavorting.

The lounge and Soda Shop in Reynolda Hall, and recreation facilities in W. N. Reynolds Gymnasium provide relaxation for weary students.

Winter comes, with the cold and ice and the bare tree limbs. But college life goes on and on. Basketball will take over and Winston-Salem's new Memorial Coliseum will roar with thousands of voices cheering the Deacons on to victory and a possible championship.

Christmas approaches and students get a bit restless as holidays grow near. Parties and dances are held, complete with the seasonal decorations and evergreens. The Glee Club presents the "Messiah," special programs and services are held, and fraternities and other groups sponsor Christmas parties for orphans and underprivileged persons.

Students go home to enjoy the holidays with their families; the campus is deserted—only the buildings and perhaps a few professors remain.

By this time a few issues of The Student, monthly campus magazine, have been published, and Radio Station WFDD is playing "White Christmas" and the latest popular recordings.

Students come back to school and the windows of every building are lighted as study begins for first-semester exams. Registration comes again with long lines, schedule conflicts and bills. And suddenly it is spring at Wake Forest.

Campus politics reign supreme in the spring as political parties make promises, give receptions, hold rallies, and distribute handbills and posters reading: Vote for this party and that candidate. Baseball games will draw crowds to Ernie Shore Field to cheer for the Deacons of the diamond.

Among Wake Forest's oldest and most cherished traditions are the magnolias. The tree's beautiful white blossoms have for many become almost synonymous with the name Wake Forest. The former campus in the village of Wake Forest was covered with magnolias, and that tradition has been transplanted here with all the others. The trees are plentiful on the new campus and are placed in prominent positions.

As the warm spring days roll on, students flock to the out-of-doors. Picnics and swimming parties are held, and intramural and intercollegiate sports reach their peak. Students move chairs outside the dorms to read and study. By night small groups gather on the campus to talk softly in the glow of the moon and campus lights.

Old Gold and Black is published for the last time and, as usual, distributed to the students on Monday. Many realize that they have taken the newspaper almost for granted and that the lights that burned far into night on "Pub Row" were enabling them to have a better knowledge of college activities. The annual question, "When is the Howler coming out?" is heard, but if everything has happened according to schedule, students have their copies and are reviewing the year before it is over.

Graduation approaches and, for the first time, students who will be back realize that many of their friends will be leaving. They realize that it is, after all, the students who make Wake Forest, and that these people—with their good points and faults—are actually the strength of the College. Wake Forest can be no better than the sum total of her students.

With this in mind, students and professors alike look forward to next year's freshmen while bidding farewell to the graduates.

History

Wake Forest began its 128-year-old history on February 3, 1834, as Wake Forest Institute with Dr. Samuel Wait as principal. Its purpose was two-fold—to give collegiate instruction in the arts and sciences, and to give training under Christian influences and provide educated ministers. The Institute was founded and despite many transitions the College today remains an agency of the Baptist State Convention.

For five years Wake Forest was a manual labor school, training students in agriculture along with liberal arts instruction. But in December, 1838, it was re-chartered as Wake Forest College. Four men received the Bachelor of Arts degree as the first class graduated in June, 1839.

Wake Forest was exclusively a college of liberal arts until June, 1894, when the Law School was established. The School of Medicine was formed in May, 1902, was moved to Winston-Salem in 1941, and is now known as Bowman Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest College.

As a student of the College it is only natural that you should ask why the College was moved to Winston-Salem from the town of Wake Forest. There are several reasons.

In 1946, the Trustees of the College and the Baptist State Convention accepted an offer made by the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation of Winston-Salem to give the College $350,000 annually in perpetuity on condition that it move to Winston-Salem.

The Charles H. Babcock family donated a part of the beautiful Reynolda estate outside Winston for the new campus, and groundbreaking ceremonies were held October 15, 1951, with the President of the United States delivering the principal address.

In 1955 the Reynolds Foundation increased its annual payments to the College to $500,000. The actual move to the new campus was completed in June of the next year and Summer School classes were held at the school's new $20-million plant.

The old campus and buildings at Wake Forest have been sold to the Southern Baptist Convention for the use of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Throughout the years thousands of students have received instruction at Wake Forest and have entered various occupations and professions. Among them have been large numbers of ministers, missionaries, physicians, lawyers, educators, writers, businessmen and farmers.

The principles of Christitanity and the purposes of Wake Forest have remained inseparable. Wake Forest graduates have contributed to Christian culture and to its development in North Carolina, the South and the nation.

Perhaps the greatest single factor in the College's development has been the consistently high caliber of its faculty and administration. Wake Forest has been able to attract men who have been willing to dedicate a major portion of their lives to the service of the school.

The outstanding figure in the College's recent history was Dr. Thurman D. Kitchin. A member of a prominent North Carolina family, Dr. Kitchin served Wake Forest for some 35 years, 13 as a teacher and Dean of the Medical School and 20 as president. During his administration the College experienced the greatest growth and development in its history to that time.

Dr. William Louis Poteat served the College 55 years as teacher and president, and under his leadership Wake Forest emerged as one of the South's leading educational institutions. He established at Wake Forest the first biology and science department in this section of the nation.

Other such men who dedicated their lives to the school were Dr. W. B. Royall, who taught Greek for 62 years; Prof. E. W. Timberlake, who taught law 48 years; Dr. Hubert M. Poteat, who was professor of Latin for 48 years; Dr. B. F. Sledd, who taught English 45 years; Dr. N. Y. Gulley, law professor for 44 years; Dr. W. R. Cullom, who taught Bible 42 years; Dr. Charles E. Taylor, who gave 35 years as teacher and president, and Prof. J. G. Carroll, a math professor for 35 years.

The Campus

Reynolda Hall

The modified Georgian buildings, the walkways, the magnolias have blended into the expansive Winston-Salem hillside grooved out to provide a new home for Wake Forest College in 1956.

Two classes have come and gone without having seen or formed an attachment for the "old" campus in Wake County. Some of the newness of the "new" campus has begun to wear off and the transplanted College now looks as if it BELONGS.

Now, six years later, 16 brick buildings stand surrounded by grass, trees and shrubbery on the campus. The architecture is modified Georgian, designed by Jens F. Larson. In addition to the college buildings, there are 10 faculty apartment buildings, 56 apartments and a trailer camp for married students, and the president's home.

THE BUILDINGS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

WAIT CHAPEL, at the head of the campus plaza. The chapel, named for Dr. Samuel Wait, the college's first president, doubles as a center of campus religious activity and an auditorium. It is the home of the campus Baptist church. Attached to Wait Chapel on the northern end is WINGATE HALL, a four-story building housing the church's educational departments and the College's departments of religion, music, philosophy, and sociology. Also located in the building is PAUL PRICE DAVIS MEMORIAL CHAPEL.

REYNOLDA HALL, at the southern end of the Plaza, facing Wait Chapel, is the administrative and student activities center. The wing on the west end of the building houses all administrative offices of the College and the wing on the east end provides for student organizations and activities. Also in the building are the cafeteria, a soda shop, lounges, conference rooms, banquet rooms, classrooms, and the campus restaurant, the Magnolia Room.

THE Z. SMITH REYNOLDS LIBRARY building is presently divided between classrooms, offices, and library rooms. Four floors of rooms for reading, reference and other uses are available, and the library has a capacity for about one million books.

W. N. REYNOLDS GYMNASIUM contains facilities for practically all sports and also houses the ROTC department. Basketball courts, a swimming pool, courts for other indoor sports, and classrooms and offices for the physical education and athletic departments are in the building.

SALEM HALL, the older of the two science buildings on campus, houses the Chemistry and Physics Departments. In this building are many laboratories, classrooms, offices, and a large lecture room.

WINSTON HALL is the newer science building. This structure, built at a cost of some $1,345,000, accommodates the Biology and Psychology Departments. This building is completely air-conditioned, and also contains offices, as well as laboratories and classrooms.

THE LAW BUILDING, reserved for the School of Law, has classrooms, a moot court and assembly room, and the law library, among other things.

Wake Forest men live in four quadrangles of dormitories bordering the plaza. Northeast of the plaza is POTEAT DORM. TAYLOR DORM is on the northwest, KITCHIN DORM is southeast and DAVIS DORM is southwest. Connecting Taylor and Poteat with Wait Chapel are two wings, EFIRD and HUFFMAN Halls.

BOSTWICK, JOHNSON, AND BABCOCK DORMITORIES for women are located on the south end of the campus.

Facing the plaza and housed in the men's dorms are a post office, a bank, a book store, men's and women's clothing stores, a barber shop and a photography studio. Wake Forest Laundry is housed in Taylor Dorm.

The new GENERAL CLASSROOM BUILDING, which is located east of the library, is expected to be open in the fall of 1963.

The Winston Area

Winston-Salem recently acquired the coveted title, "All-America City," an honor which recognizes the city's long-term progressive efforts to become the well-rounded place to live.

The student-native relationship is a healthy one and constantly improving as mutual appreciation increases.

The Winston-Salem area abounds with recreational and cultural opportunities for the student. In addition to a concert-lecture series sponsored by the College, students may attend programs of such local groups as the Civic Music Association, the Little Theater, the Winston-Salem Symphony and the Winston-Salem Operetta Association.

For relaxation and light entertainment the city has several motion picture theaters and miniature golf courses. The City Recreation Department operates 25 recreation centers and four parks, with facilities for all types of indoor and outdoor activities. Many fine restaurants are located in and around the Winston-Salem area.

Student golfers may play at two public courses, Hillcrest Golf Club and Reynolds Park, and at the Old Town Club. In baseball, the Winston-Salem Red Sox is the local farm team of the Boston Red Sox in the Class B Carolina League.

Other opportunities for recreation may be found in the area surrounding the city. "Tanglewood," the William and Kate B. Reynolds Memorial Park, offers swimming, horseback riding, fishing, games, golf and picnicking.

Hanging Rock State Park, located 30 miles north of Winston, and Pilot Mountain Park, 25 miles northwest of the city, attract many students during the fall and spring months. The scenic Blue Ridge Parkway is only 47 miles from the campus.

Of special interest is Old Salem, being restored as one of the finest examples of colonial life in the United States. Salem Academy, founded in 1772, is the oldest preparatory school for girls in the South. Salem College is a distinguished four-year college for women. Traditional services of the Moravian Church at Easter and at Christmas are attended by people from all over the nation.

Winston-Salem has a total of 121 churches, including 22 denominations and one interdenominational church.

Reynolda Gardens

Beautiful Reynolda Gardens, where Wake Forest students may stroll leisurely in the same tranquil setting and fashion of Southern gentlemen and ladies of another era, became one of the College's treasured heritages in February, 1958.

The Gardens are a gift of the Mary Reynolds Babcock Foundation and Charles H. Babcock.

The Gardens, replete with weeping Japanese cherry trees, are a favorite setting for student marriages.

In deeding the property to the College, Foundation officers said, "It is the purpose and desire of the grantors to enhance the educational facilities of Wake Forest College, particularly in the field of botany, and to enhance the cultural service which Wake Forest College is now rendering to the community and to the state, and to establish Reynolda Gardens of Wake Forest College."

PERSONALITIES

The Administration

Wake Forest's administrative personnel have a special kind of informal dignity that allows the student to appreciate the distinction between student and administrator in recognized treatment-as-an-individual relationship in the process of pursuing a liberal education.

Meet Mark Reece

Yes, new student, meet MARK REECE, our congenial DIRECTOR OF STUDENT AFFAIRS.

He's a man in a unique position to help bridge the gap between student and administrator, a man behind many scenes. Mark Reece is, what you might say, a "good man to know."

Comment from the Dean: "New students should get to know him as soon as possible."

His job deals with non-academic matters, such as activities of the College Union and the social fraternities. He aids in assembling various bulletins, brochures and handbooks, assists student committees in planning programs, complaints or get-togethers. He often acts as a spokesman for the student, handles certain conduct problems and in other ways concerns himself with the interests of the student.

His job is "designed with YOU in mind."

He's easy to talk with—look him up.

. . . and the CHAPLAIN

Chaplain of the College is DR. L. H. HOLLINGSWORTH, another person who works directly with the students.

Dr. Hollingsworth came to Wake Forest three years ago as the College's first full time chaplain. His job consists largely of work with the Baptist Student Union and with co-ordinating the activities of other denominational groups — Methodist, Presbyterian, and Episcopalian.

He also directs a weekly chapel program.

Chaplain Hollingsworth feels that "Christian education is a venture of faith . . . in a climate of academic freedom."

Student Government

The students at Wake Forest enjoy a high degree of independence and sovereignty in regulating their own activities, their behavior and their standards of conduct, embodied in the Honor Code. They work cooperatively with the administration of the College, through the Student Government, in setting the rules under which they will live while in the College. The Student Government is established and operates under the Constitution of the Student Body, and is elected each spring semester.

Student Legislature

The chief duty of the Legislature is to make all laws and state the conditions of student body activities. Its membership is comprised of the four offices listed above, twenty-two elected members representative of each of the four classes, and the President of the W.G.A. The Vice President of the Student Body is, by virtue of his office, the Speaker of the Legislature.

Student committees are appointed by the Student Body President and approved by the Legislature in order to work parallel with faculty committees. The Executive Cabinet of the student body includes the four Student Body Officers and the chairmen of six student committees. This Cabinet discusses matters for presentation to the Legislature in its regular sessions. The members of this Cabinet, as well as the members of the Legislature, are available at all times to hear the suggestions and wishes of the student body. In addition, the President of the Student Body will hold regular "Supper Forums" in the Cafeteria at which the student body in general may request the appearance of members of the College Administration or other persons for questions and discussion, and may also ask any question pertaining to student affairs. It is hoped that these forums will give to the President, and in turn to the Legislature and the College Administration, a closer tie with the wishes of the general student body.

Because it is representative of the wishes of the students, the Legislature is a voice willingly and gratefully heard by the administration, which has come to respect the sincerity of the Student Government.

Women's Government Association

The Women's Government Association is the governing body of all undergraduate resident women of the College in matters of social regulations. All women, both resident and day students, are also subject to the Honor System of the Student Government.

A separate handbook published by the WGA contains the constitution of the organization, the purpose of which, as set forth in the preamble, is: ". . . to regulate all matters pertaining to the life of the women of Wake Forest College not under the jurisdiction of the Faculty; to increase a sense of individual responsibility; to further a spirit of unity among the women of the College; and to cooperate with the Faculty in creating and maintaining high ideals for women of this college."

Irma Browder

WGA PRESIDENT

Sue Fulkerson

HONOR COUNCIL CHAIRMAN

The Honor Council

The Honor Council, composed of eight men and eight women, is the judicial branch of the Student Government. Sitting as a court, the Council rules on the innocence or guilt of a person charged with violating the Honor System. If a student is found to be guilty, the Council determines his penalty. The respect and standing of this body are such that its decisions are final and are rarely reviewed by the faculty except in extreme circumstances. The Chairman of the Honor Council is SUE FULKERSON.

From the Alumni

You will be in Wake Forest College for a period of time. But Wake Forest College will be in you henceforth for all time. You are establishing an irrevocable bond which only death can break. You are entering upon the high station of an alumnus.

The relationship of an alumnus to the College is reciprocal. The College prepares you intellectually, emotionally and spiritually for life. You in turn sustain the College. If the College gains renown, you share in it. If you attain prominence and success, the College shares the reflected glory. It has been said in truth that the ultimate strength of a college rests with its alumni.

The College will look to you for financial support. More, it will look to you for unstinting moral support in good times and bad. It will ever seek to strengthen its spirit, ideals and programs so that it will be for you and your family a continuing source of pride and service.

Your opportunities on the campus today are wider and more meaningful because of the generous support, past and present, of thousands of alumni who preceded you. This is a point to remember.

We hope that during your student days you will acquaint yourself with the alumni program. You will automatically become a member of the Alumni Association upon leaving the College. It is through this organization that you will maintain contact with the College, its progress, its problems, its triumphs, its shortcomings, its needs, its plans, its dreams. You will receive The Wake Forest Magazine, which will keep you abreast of life on the campus and of the activities of your fellow alumni. As a student you will have an opportunity to participate in the production of this magazine.

So welcome to Wake Forest• College and to a rewarding lifelong association with it.

Dr. C. Hunter Moricle
President, WFC Alumni Association
Rom Weatherman
Director of Alumni Activities

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

The College Union

A full-scale College Union program is in operation at Wake Forest, established since the move to the new campus as part of the College's progressive attempts to meet the needs of the students—ALL the students.

The College Union, voted into being by the students themselves and directed by student leaders, seeks to provide social activities and entertainment throughout the year.

A complete program of activities has been planned for the 1962-63 semesters.

Continuing activities will be the weekly on-campus movies, talent shows, concerts, lectures and, of course, parties at "The Barn," where (confidentially) dancing is permitted—not ON campus, but almost.

The College Union also plans to sponsor two vacation trips, in the wake of the "highly successful" excursions in the past to Nassau and New York provided at a minimum of cost.

FRANK LORD, a senior of Richmond, Va., is president. DAVID FORSYTHE is vice-president, and JOYCE GROOME is secretary.

All students, including incoming freshmen, may participate on committees.

A fee of $3.00 will be collected from each student at registration to pay for the semester's College Union activities. Another $3.00 will be required in the spring.

Students have found the College Union a welcome supplement to the College social structure.

Independent Council

Those students who do not choose to join a social fraternity in college are automatically classed as "Independents." Until the fall of 1960, the Independents at Wake Forest had no formal organization, and thus no way to participate in many of the college activities. However, in December of 1960, the Independent Council was formed and recognized by the administration as a functioning body on campus. The purpose of the Independent Council is to give the Independent Student a more enriched college experience by offering to him a more varied social life, by organizing intramural teams, and by encouraging academic excellence.

Social Fraternities

One of the first questions facing a male student who enrolls at Wake Forest is whether he will join one of the ten Greek-letter social fraternities on campus. Each of these organizations starts the school year with a "rushing" program designed to interest new students in joining its ranks.

During the year fraternities have numerous dances and informal parties and are active in such phases of college life as intramural athletics and campus politics. Furthermore, fraternities urge their members to participate in extracurricular activities and excel in scholastic work.

If the new student decides to pledge a social fraternity, he must then choose which one, provided that he receives an invitation from more than one group. When a person joins a fraternity, he is selecting an organization and a group of men with whom he wishes to be affiliated during his entire college career. It is a decision that should not be made hastily or without serious consideration.

The Interfraternity Council is the central governing body for all fraternities on campus. Its main purpose, in addition to regulating rushing, pledging and initiation of students, is to sponsor social functions for the fraternity men and their guests. The annual IFC dances, usually featuring a big-name band, are the highlights of fraternity social life. The faculty committee on fraternities works in conjunction with the IFC to maintain high standards of conduct and scholarship among fraternity men.

George Hudnor of Kappa Alpha is president of the IFC. The fraternities and their presidents for 1961-62 are:

SIGMA PI	Ted Tyler
DELTA SIGMA PHI	Donald H. Newlin
PI KAPPA ALPHA	Allen Hall Painter
THETA CHI	Charles F. Wilson
SIGMA PHI EPSILON	James R. Walker
KAPPA SIGMA	Mike V. Starling
SIGMA CHI	Robert E. Knott
LAMBDA CHI ALPHA	Sonny Berces
KAPPA ALPHA	Craven Edward Williams
ALPHA SIGMA PHI	James P. George

Fraternity Rushing Rules

1. These rushing regulations, applying to rushing of all students except as specifically stated otherwise, shall take effect on the first day of fall registration and continue in effect until October 2, 1961. (For purposes of these regulations a fraternity man is an active member, an alumnus, a pledge, or anyone authorized as an agent of the fraternity.)

2. No freshman may be in any fraternity section after 7:30 P.M. Monday through Thursday night. The sole exception to this rule is the evening smoker, held between 8 and 11 P.M. This smoker shall be considered as formal. Attendance will be limited to men, although wives of students and of faculty members and house mothers may serve refreshments.

3. No fraternity man (as previously defined) may be in the freshman dormitories and Ebird and Huffman between the hours of 8:30 P.M. and 8:00 A.M. Monday through Thursday. No rushing between these hours will be permitted and freshmen seen outside the freshman dormitories during these hours shall only be extended a casual greeting.

4. Between the opening of school and October 8, each fraternity may have two individual parties, which may be held on the week-ends of September 22, 29 and October 6. A fraternity may spend not more than $250 for these two parties combined, and an itemized account of all expenses must be presented to the IFC Social Chairman for each party. On the evening of September 18, each fraternity will hold an open house on campus, the idea being for rushees to circulate throughout the ten houses on campus with their dates if they wish. The maximum a fraternity may spend on this party is $40, and no combo, regardless of origin or cost, will be permitted.

5. No rushing entertainment may be provided for or offered to any rushee at any time except at the evening or afternoon smokers and at the three parties mentioned in Rule 4.

Initiation Requirments

The Interfraternity Council has set up minimum requirements which each student must meet in order to be eligible for initiation into a social fraternity. The IFC Constitution, Article IX, Section 3, provides that:

A. Any student transferring to the College with 24 or more hours and an equal number of quality points is immediately eligible for initiation.

B. Anyone who pledges any fraternity on the Wake Forest College campus must attain either an accumulative C average or a C average for the previous semester to be initiated into any fraternity. Anyone who pledged before September 1, 1961 may be initiated on the basis of a C average attained at mid-term.

C. Any student on probation for any reason shall not be initiated until his period of probation is completed.

Violation of the provision is punishable in accordance with the provisions of the IFC Constitution.

Chapter Room Use

A. Married women, accompanied by their husbands, shall be allowed in normally recognized social or chapter rooms (on the first floor only) of fraternities, and a mother or father shall be considered sufficient chaperone for his or her own daughter. This is permissible between the hours of 2-9 P.M.

B. Mixed groups shall be allowed in normally recognized social chapter rooms (on the first floor only) of fraternities between the hours of 12 noon and 7 P.M. on Saturdays of home football games or Interfraternity Council dances provided there is present either chaperones or a lady designated by the Social Committee as "chapter hostess."

C. Except as stated in A and B above, all general regulations, except article 5, shall be applicable to parties given in fraternity quarters.

D. Violation of B or C., if reported to the Social Committee and verified by it, shall result in the denial of house and group social privileges for a period of time to be fixed by the Social Committee, but not to extend beyond the start of the next succeeding academic year; further, such violation even though disciplined by the Social Committee may still be subject to such actions as are provided in the Constitution of the Student Government Council, or as may be determined by the Executive and/or the Constitution of the Interfraternity Committee of the Faculty.

Peace Corps

The Peace Corps' Liaison representative on the campus is Mark Reece, Director of Student Affairs. Students interested in this organization can secure descriptive literature and information from Mr. Reece, 204 Reynolda Hall.

The ROTC Program

A senior unit of the United States Army Reserve Officers Training Corps was established at Wake Forest College in 1951. The general objective of the program is to produce officers who possess the leadership and scholastic attributes essential to progressive and continual development as Reserve Officers in the Army of the United States.

The ROTC program is divided into a Basic Course (freshmen and sophomores) and an Advanced Course (juniors and seniors). Except when credit for previous training or service is allowed, failure to enroll in ROTC as an academic freshman will preclude the four-year college student from participation in the program.

A student enrolled in ROTC who meets prescribed requirements may receive deferment from selective service. Uniforms, military text books and equipment are provided students by the United States Government. Students selected for the Advanced Course receive total pay, for the two years and summer camp, of about $650.00.

After successful completion of the four year ROTC program, and the receipt of a baccalaureate degree, students are commissioned second lieutenants in the U. S. Army Reserve. If selected as a Distinguished Military Graduate, a student may be appointed a second lieutenant in the Regular Army.

As a rule, the parties are about equally divided in strength, neither necessarily holding a majority of the vote-getting power in any particular election and certainly not from year to year.

In the spring of each year, the parties meet separately in small-scale "conventions" to nominate their choices of candidates for the 38 Student Government positions to be filled for the following year.

These conventions in miniature assume many of the aspects of a national political convention, with the huddles and caucuses and candidates busily waiting to be drafted.

Names of the candidates are published a specified length of time in advance of the time for elections and the campaigning is begun. For several days the campus is a flurry of posters and leaflets and signs boasting the attributes of the many candidates.

The excitement of election day is one of the highlights of the year. Students gather on the patio to celebrate the returns brought to them via a loud speaker from WFDD.

Freshman Class officers are elected in the fall, shortly after the beginning of the fall semester. Each freshman wishing to run for an office may do so by obtaining the signatures of eight of his classmates, in accordance with Statute V of the Constitution.

Freshman elections, too, generate a lot of excitement, with the campus again flooded with colorful "propaganda" and hand-shaking politicians.

Student Publications

Publications at Wake Forest include a newspaper, a magazine, and an annual. Through these media students are informed of campus happenings, learn what other students are thinking, and are supplied with a record of a year's activities at the College.

The publications are governed by a Faculty Publications Board composed of faculty advisers and a Student Publication Board composed of the editors and business managers from each staff. The four offices are located on "Pub Row" in the east wing of Reynolda Hall's second floor. Participation is open to all students.

OLD GOLD AND BLACK

Old Gold and Black, student newspaper, is distributed each Monday during the year, except during and immediately after holiday periods. It is the principal means of student communication and its pages are filled with general and sports news, feature articles, editorials, pictures and advertising. It is a week-by-week story of Wake Forest—what happened and what will happen, with interpretation of the news.

Two years ago, in addition to an All-American rating, the paper was rated number 2 in the South among all college papers. RAY SOUTHARD is the editor, and ROY ROCKWELL is business manager.

THE STUDENT

The College magazine is The Student, an outlet for the creative abilities of students. Short stories, feature articles, poems, and cartoons are among the material included in the magazine.

Manuscripts, accepted for publication on the basis of individual merit, may be submitted by any student. Founded in 1882, the magazine is the oldest College publication. It is published seven times throughout the school year. JOHN ROSENTHAL is the editor, and PETE BILLINGS is business manager.

THE HOWLER

The Howler, College yearbook, is a word-and-picture story of the year's activities and a valuable record for future reference. Individual, group, and action pictures are included to record the complete story of college life. The Howler has appeared each year since 1903.

RICHARD WILSON is the editor, and DAVID RADER is business manager.

WFDD-FM

WFDD-FM, "the voice of Wake Forest College," broadcasts to the students and faculty as well as to the people of Winston-Salem and Forsyth County by means of FM (88.1 mc.). Dormitory students who do not have FM receivers may pick up the College's programs at 650 kc. on their regular AM radios.

WFDD-FM broadcasts every Monday through Friday from 5:00 p.m. until midnight, and its programs include music, news, sports, interviews, discussions, lectures, and documentaries.

The very finest in radio broadcast facilities are available, and students may participate as announcers, directors, producers, writers, actors, news- and sports-casters, and interviews.

The College Theater

Aspiring actors find opportunities in the College Theater to display their talents for acting, lighting, staging and make-up.

The Theater presents five major productions a year. Besides these, the coming season will include workshops for freshmen and several one-act plays directed by students.

Plays are now presented in a theater located on the fourth floor of the Library. In the future the College plans to construct a Fine Arts Building that will meet all the needs of a college theater group.

James H. Walton is director of the Theater, which was begun in 1943. Participation is open to all interested students.

College Debating

Wake Forest debaters, traditionally successful in collegiate debate circles, have won national recognition for the College. The teams usually attend intercollegiate forensic tournaments at such places as New York, Miami, Washington, West Point, and Notre Dame.

The College sponsors the Dixie Classic Debate Tournament each winter, bringing outstanding national teams to the campus. Novice debate teams are also organized and a novice tournament is held in the fall.

Wake Forest annually is among the top teams in the nation, taking both team and individual honors at various tournaments each year. Oratory, extemporaneous, impromptu and after-dinner speaking are also stressed. Franklin R. Shirley is director of the debate squad.

Literary Societies

The Euzelian and Philomathesian Literary Societies, whose purpose is the intellectual improvement of their members, are the oldest among the more distinguished student organizations on the campus.

Organized when the College was founded in 1834, the societies have had as members men and women who later became governors, attorneys, physicians, ministers and teachers.

At first membership was compulsory, as the societies were an integral part of college life. Since the establishment of numerous administrative departments and social and professional fraternities, the literary societies have been reduced in number to a select group of students interested in training themselves in public speaking, literary appreciation and cultural understanding.

Both societies occupy meeting halls on the second floor of the east wing of Reynolda Hall.

The societies meet regularly and have programs of a varied nature: faculty, student, and guest speakers; debating, impromptu speaking and other speech activities by members; literary discussions. Traditionally inter-society forensic contests were held twice during the academic year on Society Day in the fall and on Founders' Day in the spring. These contests have not been held for the past few years, but the societies hope for a revival of them.

Membership is open to all.

Religious Activities

The Baptist Student Union directs student religious activities on the campus. The purpose of the program is to afford every member of the student body an opportunity to come to an understanding and acceptance of a faith in God, to develop that faith in service, to discover its relevancy to all areas of life and to participate actively in the program of a local church.

All students may participate in BSU activities. Membership is based upon the student's voluntary choice and/or membership in a local Baptist church. Students of other denominations who take part in such groups as Westminster Fellowship (for Presbyterians), Wesley Foundation (for Methodists), and Canterbury Club (for Episco-paliens) are given representation on the BSU Council.

Several unit organizations are sponsored by the BSU. The Cullom Ministerial Conference attempts to give practical instruction in helping prospective ministers become more effective preachers and pastors.

The Christian Education and Service Club provides an opportunity for students to study phases and problems of religious education and a chance to apply in service what is learned.

The Young Women's Auxiliary promotes the study of missions through "taps" programs in the girls' dorms and general monthly meetings.

BSU Sunday activities include Sunday School, Training Union, and fellowship. Daily vespers are held in Davis Chapel.

The BSU also has supper forums, literary discussion groups, and publishes a journal. It sends teams to nearby churches for week-end youth programs, sponsors social events and parties, and assists in the Freshman Orientation program.

An annual BSU pre-school retreat for all students interested is held immediately before the orientation program. The retreat is an orientation to the religious life on campus and seeks to enrich the spiritual life of all who attend. It will be held at Camp Laurel Ridge, a Moravian Camp located in the Blue Ridge Mountains.

SYBIL BEASLEY is president of the BSU.

Bi-Weekly Chapel

Chapel is a very integral part of campus life at Wake Forest. The chapel programs are varied, informative, and planned with the interests of the student in mind. Chapel is for the students and not for the administration and faculty. The programs are scheduled largely by the students themselves. The College seeks to bring as many outstanding speakers to the campus as monetary bounds will allow.

This year Dr. Samuel Miller, Cong. Horace Kornegay, Dr. Blake Smith, and Mr. Roe Bartle are already slated to speak at various programs.

Though chapel attendance is compulsory, incoming students should not approach the idea of chapel with a negative attitude. These weekly meetings provide a medium whereby all students can together reach new heights of intellectual and cultural enrichment.

Chapel can be only as effective as you the student allow it to be. Make it a very real part of your College experience.

Musical Activities

At Wake Forest there are many musical organizations covering the whole scope of the field, including all ranges of talent in individual and group work, professional and amateur, vocal and instrumental.

The instrumental groups include the Marching Deacons, whose lively music brings entertainment, good music, and fighting cheers from the crowds at the games; and the Varsity Band, which is for students who enjoy participating in a musical organization, but do not have the time required of members of the Concert Band. The Concert Band begins rehearsals after the football season and continues the rest of the year preparing for the annual Spring Tour and for numerous concerts. In addition there is the College Little Symphony which is made up from persons from the college bands as well as performers on stringed instruments, both from the college community and the Winston-Salem area. The Little Symphony, as well as the three bands, is directed by Calvin Huber, director of instrumental music.

An opportunity for vocal expression may be found in the Chapel Choir and the College Touring Choir. The Chapel Choir performs each week at the required devotional chapel period. The Touring Choir makes a tour of North Carolina and other states during the Spring.

holidays and presents performances of sacred music. Dr. Thane McDonald, head of the music department, directs the choirs.

College Artist Series

Each year the Artists series brings the best in concerts from many countries to the campus. The series for this year is:

Oct. 4—PANHELLENION, the Greek folk festival featured in "Never on Sunday"

Oct. 18—ROSALYN TURECK, outstanding Bach interpreter

Oct. 25—SANGEETA MADRAS, instrumental ensemble from India.

Nov. 15—RITA STREICH, coloratura soprano

Feb. 19—RAMAT GAN, chamber orchestra from Israel

Feb. 28—BENNO MOISIEWITSCH, pianist

April 25—LEOPOLD SIMONEAU, tenor

Tickets to these concerts are distributed to students during registration without cost. The costs of the program are included as part of general fees, and partly covered by endowment funds.

THE SPORTS PROGRAM

The College provides extensive athletic and recreational facilities and a faculty of trained supervisors to direct activities in these fields.

In order to provide for a recreational program for all students, the College maintains athletic fields, tennis courts, and a combination athletic, physical education and recreation building which includes a swimming pool, handball and squash, rhythm studio, arts and crafts room, recreational area, corrective rooms, a gymnastic and wrestling room, and four separate gymnasiums including a women's gym, a varsity basketball gym and two men's intramural gyms.

Intramural Sports

The department of physical education provides a varied intramural sports program that appeals to the interests of several hundred Wake Forest students every year.

Intramural sports include touch football, golf and tennis (both fall and spring), volleyball, handball, table tennis, badminton, horseshoes and softball.

Competition in team sports is on the basis of fraternity and non-fraternity, or independent, teams. Any individual or group of individuals may organize teams and enter competition in any sport. Individual sports are run on a single-elimination basis, and anyone is eligible to enter. Trophies are awarded to individual and team winners in every sport.

The intramural program is under the direction of Dr. Taylor Dodson of the department of physical education. In 1948 the intramural student manager system was inaugurated to assist the physical education department in the intramural program. The intramural manager and assistant managers are appointed by the physical education staff and handle the details necessary for operation of the program.

Women's Athletics

The women's division of the department of physical education offers each woman an opportunity, through participation in team and individual sports, rhythms, aquatics and tumbling, to acquire skill and knowledge in all phases of physical activities.

Two semesters of physical education are required of all freshman women. Grades are based primarily on achievement in the activity.

Woman's Recreation Association sponsors extracurricular athletics and recreation for women. Individual awards and trophies are based on points which coeds may accumulate by participating in various activities and tournaments.

The Physical Education Majors' Club is composed of all women who are majoring in physical education and those who are interested in it as a profession.

Intercollegiate Sports

In intercollegiate sports the College is a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference, one of the finest athletic circuits in the nation. Wake Forest teams are popularly called the Demon Deacons.

The year-round varsity sports schedule includes football, basketball, baseball, track, wrestling, cross country, golf, tennis, and swimming. Freshman teams have full schedules in all intercollegiate sports.

Other schools in the ACC are Duke University, the University of North Carolina, N. C. State College, Clemson College, and the Universities of South Carolina, Maryland, and Virginia.

Deacon athletic teams have brought much national recognition to Wake Forest.

Wake footballers now are playing home games at Bowman Gray Stadium in Winston-Salem, but plans call for a new stadium near the campus to be constructed in a few years. Home basketball games are played in Winston-Salem's Memorial Coliseum near the campus. Ernie Shore Field, near the Coliseum, is the scene of home baseball games.

The College Songs

DEAR OLD WAKE FOREST

(The Alma Mater)

Dear old Wake Forest!
Thine is a noble name;
Thine is a glorious fame,
Constant and true.
We give thee of our praise,
Adore thine ancient days,
Sing thee our humble lays,
Mother, so dear.

Dear old Wake Forest!
Mystic thy name to cheer;
Be thou our guardian near,
Fore'er and aye.
We bow before thy shrine,
Thy brow with bays entwine,
All honor now be thine,
Mother, today.

Oh, here's to Wake Forest, a glass of the finest
Red, ruddy Rhenish filled up to the brim!
Her sons they are many, unrivaled by any;
With hearts o'erflowing we will sing her hymn.

(Chorus)

Rah, Rah, Wake Forest, Rah!
Old Alma Mater's sons we are;
We'll herald her story and die for her glory,
Old Gold and Black is ever waving high.

OH, HERE'S

TO WAKE FOREST

(The Fight Song)

As frosh we adore her; as sophs we explore her,
And carve our names upon her ancient walls;
As juniors patrol her; as seniors extol her,

And weep to leave fore'er her sacred halls.
Though fortune forsake us and fate o'ertake us,
We'll ne'er forget our dear old college days,
And o'er memory's treasure we'll drink without measure,
And sing fore'er our Alma Mater's praise.

REGULATIONS

The Bulletin

Information pertaining to charges, estimated expenses, financial arrangements, requirements for degrees, courses in liberal arts, the summer term, and listing of all professors and administrative staffs may be found in the Bulletin of Wake Forest College. The Bulletin also contains more detailed coverage of much of the material in this handbook.

The Honor System

At Wake Forest, the Administration, the Faculty, the Student Government, and more important, the student body itself assume the personal integrity and honor of each student enrolled. Some years ago, the College asked if the students wished to be placed upon their honor as a lady or a gentleman, and the answer was in the affirmative. This was the beginning of the Honor System which has become a very vital and traditional part of the life of the College.

To assure the effectiveness of the "honor" idea, the students drew up a set of rules—an acceptable standard of conduct. Then they elected a group of their fellow students to enforce this standard of conduct. These representatives, composing the Honor Council, charged each student to share in the responsibility of making the system effective on the campus, in the classroom, and, in fact, in the life of the individual who has chosen to make Wake Forest his college home.

Article VII of the Constitution of the Student Body states the depth of meaning of the Code in the following way: "The Honor System is more nearly a spirit than a code. Reduced to its simplest terms, it means that a man or a woman shall act honorably in all relations and phases of student life, that his word can be trusted implicitly, and that he will at all times conduct himself as becomes students of Wake Forest College whether at the college or away from the campus." In other words, it means that a Wake Forest Student is expected by his or her fellow classmates to act as a mature lady or gentleman at all times. It's as simple as that.

Particular emphasis is given here to the rule concerning cheating, not only on examinations, but on other outside work specified as "Pledge Work" by the professor. The student is required to sign at the end of all written work a pledge which reads: "I have neither given nor received aid on this work, nor have I knowledge of anyone doing so." Stated in this way, the pledge has a three-fold obligation. First, the student must give absolutely no aid to anyone on written work. Second, he must ask no one for aid. Third, he must report any violation of the honor system. The system has worked so well that most professors administer examinations without the help of proctors, and do not remain in the room. The "Watch-dog" atmosphere is non-existent, and the relaxed atmosphere in which to think, compose and write an examination reaps greater benefits than one can tabulate. Actually, every person in the room is his own proctor as well as that for every other student.

The Honor System, however, is more than a rule about cheating on examinations and written work. It extends to all phases of student behavior. Statute I of the Constitution deals with the various offenses included in the Honor Code, and the penalties incurred for violations. Statute II deals with the makeup and operation of the Honor Council itself, including the conduct of trials, rights of the accused, penalties and subsequent action of the Council upon hearing the evidence. It is the duty of a person who is guilty of violating the system to turn himself in to the Council. When a student sees another student violating the honor system it is further his duty to approach that student and request that he turn himself in to the Council or to the Dean of the College. In most cases, and particularly in a violation of the section dealing with cheating, the Honor Council has full authority. A student may appeal his case to the Executive Committee of the faculty after trial by the Council, but the respect which the Administration of the college feels toward the system and its operation has led them to a "Hands Off" policy except in rare cases.

What, then, does this mean to you as a student entering Wake Forest College? It does not mean that you should come to the campus in the spirit of "fear and trembling," or that you are going to spend your college career in the midst of "tattle-tales." It means simply that you will be required, not by the administration or the faculty of the college but by students who have come and gone before you, and by those with whom you will associate while a student here, to act as a mature, honest, and honorable citizen. Being a student at Wake Forest means this to us, and we feel that it will to you.

Student Marriages

In the rules and regulation of the Woman's Government Association is the following statement:

A woman student who plans to continue her enrollment in college after marriage must have her parent or guardian notify the Dean of Women before the marriage takes place. She must secure the permission of the Executive Committee of the faculty to continue her enrollment and, except in unusual circumstances, must secure off-campus living quarters.

The following regulation is in effect for men students in the College:

A male student who plans to continue his enrollment in college after marriage to a woman student in the College must notify the Dean of the College before the marriage takes place. He must secure the permission of the Executive Committee of the faculty to continue his enrollment.

This new regulation was adopted in accordance with the principle that a man student and a woman student guilty of the same violation of College rules should receive the same penalty.

Room Contract

Each student, in accepting his/her assignment, agrees to abide by this contract, the Constitution of the Student Body, and the dormitory regulations which follow, and to permit, in his presence, duly authorized College personnel to inspect his room and any effects in such room. Authorized personnel may enter rooms at any time to check for cleanliness or to make necessary repairs, or when it appears to the College that the safety of the students is endangered or where property damage is involved.

1. All payments for room rent are made at registration. Room rental is not refunded upon withdrawal. The occupant may not sublet the room to another student, or to any other person.

2. The room is rented for actual use and occupancy by the student and shall not be used as a study hall or office by any student who is actually living elsewhere, either on or off the campus.

3. A woman student may exchange her room only with the advance written authorization of the Dean of Women. A non-fraternity student may exchange his room only with the advance written authorization of the Director of Residences. A fraternity student living in a fraternity section must follow the procedure outlined in the fraternity contract.

4. A charge of $5.00 will be incurred for authorized room changes made after October 1 in the fall semester and after February 15 in the spring semester. A charge of $5.00 will be incurred for all authorized changes made after the first week of a summer session.

A fine of $20.00 will be incurred for any change made otherwise.

5. The student will be charged for any damages which may occur to his room or furnishings, for any damage which may occur to his suite (on a pro-rata basis), and for all damage caused by his neglect, misuse, or abuse of any part of the College property. Any student may appeal his dormitory damage charge to the Board of Dormitory Damage Appeals.

6. College furniture or furnishings are not to be moved from the room in which they have been placed by the College.

7. All occupants must secure keys for the dormitory rooms at the office of the Director of Residences during regular office hours as follows:

Thursday, and Friday, September 13-14, 1962 (inclusive)—
8:30 A.M. to 12:30 P.M. and 1:30 P.M. to 5:00 P.M.

Saturday, September 15, 1962—9:00 A.M. to 12:00 Noon.

Sunday, September 16, 1962—2:00 P.M. to 6:00 P.M.

The use or possession of an unauthorized key is forbidden. A deposit is required for a key, and this may be recovered by returning the key to the Director of Residences when the room is vacated. All keys must be returned, even if the student may plan to occupy the same room for a summer session or for the ensuing fall semester. Failure to return a room key under these circumstances leaves the student liable for any damages which may occur to the room or suite.

8. Dormitories will be open at 9:00 A.M. on Thursday, September 13, 1962. They will be closed at noon on the first day of the Christmas holidays (December 20, 1962) and will reopen at noon on the last day of the Christmas holidays (January 2, 1962). The dormitories will close at noon on the day following Commencement (June 3, 1963).

Dormitories will open at 2:00 P.M. Sunday, June 9, 1963 for the 1963 summer sessions and will close at 6:00 P.M. on the last day of the summer sessions.

Occupancy of a room otherwise may be permitted only in an extreme emergency and must have the written approval of the Director of Residences or the Dean of Women, as appropriate. A charge of $1.00 will be made for each day or fraction thereof.

Study lamps and curtains or draperies (installed according to College regulations) are permissible. Furnishings are not to be used for other than the intended purpose, and beds are not to be disassembled. Each student will supply his own linen (for single beds), desk lamp and bulbs, and wastebasket.

(c) Curtains, draperies, pictures, pennants, and clippings must be hung from the picture molding and not tacked or posted on walls or woodwork. Window screens must be left intact.

(f) The possession or use on the Wake Forest College campus of any intoxicating liquors, wines, or beer is forbidden. The presence of beer cans, liquor bottles, or any other container for alcoholic beverages in the dormitory or within a room constitutes a violation of this regulation, and the occupants of the room wherein such containers are found will be held responsible for such violation.

Occupants are hereby put on notice that the presence of such containers will be subject to report to the Dean's Office.

Automobiles

During his first two semesters in college a freshman male student living in a dormitory is not allowed to have an automobile. If he makes a C average during these first two semesters, he earns the privilege of having an automobile during his sophomore year. In order to have a car during his junior year he must have an over-all C average at the end of his sophomore year. A senior may have an automobile if he has an over-all C average at the end of his junior year.

No woman student except a senior with an over-all C average and otherwise in good standing is allowed to have an automobile without receiving the permission of the Executive Committee of the faculty. Seniors who have cars must make arrangements for them with the Dean of Women.

A student automatically loses the privilege of having an automobile at any time that he is placed on social or conduct probation.

A student prevented by College regulations from having an automobile is not allowed to maintain or operate a motor vehicle in Forsyth County or vicinity. Storing or otherwise keeping a motor vehicle in other places in this area for occasional use is a violation of this regulation. Registering an automobile on behalf of another student who is not qualified to register a car in his own name is a violation of this regulation. Otherwise aiding or abetting in the violation of this regulation is a violation of the regulation.

A first semester freshman who arrives on the campus with an automobile must have it returned to his home before 6:00 p.m. on the day preceding the first day of classes for that semester.

Students will be required to show the state vehicle registration of the automobile to be registered and their state operator's license on registration of an automobile.

Students who violate any of these regulations will be placed on conduct probation by the Dean's office and will be subject to suspension from the College or such other penalty as the Executive Committee may prescribe. Exceptions to these regulations may be made only by written permission from the Dean's office.

See the section in the student handbook on "Parking Regulations" for instructions as to the proper registration of motor vehicles.

General Social Regulations

1. A party is defined as a mixed gathering which begins or continues after 7:00 p.m.

2. All parties given by student organizations must be scheduled in the office of the Dean of Women at least three days in advance of the date.

3. All parties shall require chaperons. Chaperons shall be married faculty or administrative couples as approved by the Student Affairs Committee. For an open house in fraternity quarters before and after a football game only one chaperon is required. A note from the chaperon must be filed in the Office of the Dean of Women three days prior to the party.

4. Bona fide formal or semiformal dances shall end not later than 1:00 a.m. on Friday nights and not later than 12:00 midnight on Saturday nights. All other parties shall end not later than 11:30 p.m. on Friday and Saturday, and not later than 10:30 p.m. on other nights. All functions end at the specified hours whether or not coeds are present.

5. All parties must be held at places approved by the Student Affairs Committee. This list is available in the Office of the Dean of Women.

6. There shall be no consumption of any intoxicating beverages at any party, nor shall anyone under the influence of alcohol be present.

7. Officers of the sponsoring organization shall be held responsible for the conduct of all persons in attendance, and for enforcement of social regulations.

8. In view of the serious responsibilities inherent in conscientious chaperoning as well as the near-impossibility of effective supervision under any but optimum conditions, the faculty of Wake Forest College feels that student social events held at such a distance from the College as to necessitate overnight absence from the campus impose demands upon chaperons which they cannot be expected to meet. Consequently, it is the policy of the school to decline approval of such events. The College does, however, require that the sponsoring organization register such an event with the Dean of Women, and that women students participating in such a function procure from parents or guardians a written statement of approval, and of understanding that the College is in no way responsible for the supervision of the event. Whatever chaperons the students involved see fit to select will in no way be acting for the College.

In the case of students traveling as representatives of the College (as debaters, band or choir members athletes, etc.), of course, the provisions above are not applicable. The College assumes all chaperoning responsibility for such occasions.

9. Violations of the above regulations, if reported and verified, are punishable at the discretion of the Student Affairs Committee.

Regulations For Women

Any woman student who attends a dance given by a Wake Forest group must return to her dormitory after the dance unless she is in the company of her parents. She is expected to be in the dormitory half an hour after the close of the dance. After all other functions girls are expected to be in by the regular closing hour: 10:45. Monday through Thursday; 12:00 Friday and Saturday; and 11:30 Sunday.
